"The training was excellent and opened my eyes to some changes to incorporate in the way I deliver a lesson plan to the youth within the program"

We empower coaches to build relationships with kids and teens in a live environment by providing solutions for many of the challenges they may encounter at their own chapters.

"The format was perfect. We had some required time in the classroom, but not for too long. We always went outside to implement what we had just learned"

In coach training, we spend 80-85% of our time practicing what we preach and being activity based in our training style and content delivery.

"Great networking opportunity! Trainers were great, learned some good coaching techniques, and was able to practice them with actual kids."

Coaches have an opportunity to build their go-to team including coaches and trainers across the First Tee network, creating a culture of community and best practice sharing.
